

INTERNATIONAL GAMES DAY

Come along to try some gaming technology beyond your wildest dreams with Virtual Reality Insanity! Lots of other fun games and activities for children of all ages, no bookings required.

FRANKSTON LIBRARY SATURDAY 19 NOVEMBER

THIS IS THE COSPLAY EVENT YOU'RE LOOKING FOR...

Would you like to meet a Star Wars character in real life? Frankston City Libraries is excited to welcome the 501st Legion Knightfall Squad at Frankston Library as part of International Games Day celebrations. You may have seen them at Supernova or Comic Con - the 501st Legion is a worldwide Star Wars costuming organization comprised of and operated by Star Wars fans. Come dressed as your favourite character (movie, video game, pop culture, anime etc.) or check out their awesome costumes and have a photo opportunity.

The Force will be with Frankston Library from 12pm-2pm.

