

Dear Princess or Prince,

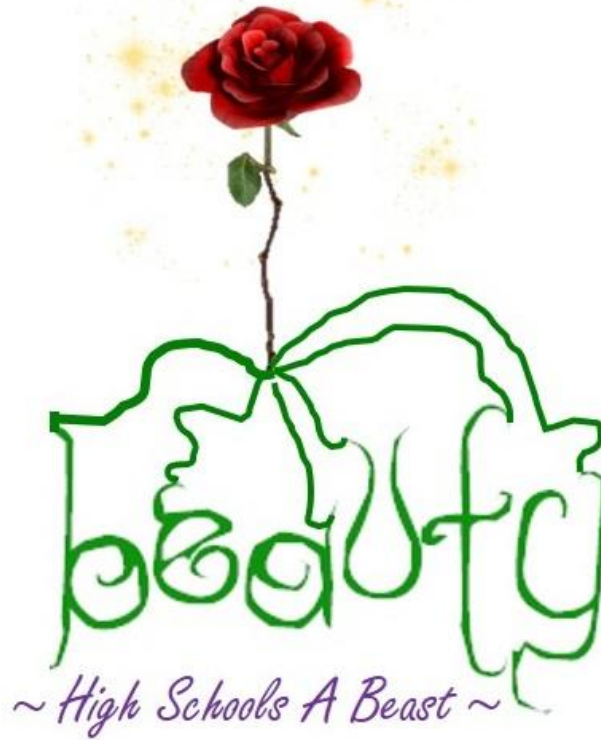

I, Belle, invite you, your friends and family to come see McClelland Colleges' Musical Theatre Productions musical "Beauty; High school's a Beast" in which I as well as many of your favourite Disney Princesses will appear. This story involves Belle and Adam who now have twins who accidentally get the same curse the Beast had, but this time they have to deal with it in High School! Adele is popular and has trouble staying with her group of friends when her hairy situation comes about and Bernard is a sweet nerd but also has trouble with his friends as he becomes aggressive and his secret doesn't make it easier.

When- 19th of November 2014

Where-

McClelland
College
Performing Arts
Centre

Alexander Crescent,
Frankston East, Victoria,
Australia 3199

Time- 4:00pm-
5:00pm

Cost- FREE

Go to Facebook:
"Beauty – High
School's a beast"

For more information.

The students from the Musical Theatre Production McClelland Academy Program have been working on this spectacular show for half a year. Exploring all different stagecraft's including set, props, costume and make-up etc. This musical was created fully by students with minimal teacher input and that's what makes it fresh, funny and creative. This show is free so bring whoever you like, this show is to be loved by all ages! I look forward to seeing you there!

Love,

Belle 